Re: You and me and the lamp-post הנדון:

Shalom and thanks, Har, for the recent packet of mail in which there was the nice magazine article about your contribution to keep alive the investigation of JFK's assassination. I share your mail with my family. They marvel at your tenacity, courage and pursuit in search of the truth. When I told them of our long friendship they enjoy your letters that much more. However, you know I am a realist and pragmatist. After a while when my efforts do not bear fruit and my good deeds are exploited to the benefit of others, I say, "dayenu" — enough's enough. To paraphrase Bill Shakespeare: "How sharper than a serpent's tooth is an ungrateful society). Beating one's head

on a stone wall gives one a headache—
Your head, like your will, must be made of iron. (Our dear friend Sam Silver was here last week and ~~also~~ admired
your stamina and devotion to history.)
But as for me, unrequited devotion is a one way street and dies when it reaches a ~~cul de sac~~ (Sp?) — a dead end.
CUL-DE-SAC

Let the evil doers suffer in hell and let
the good doers enjoy the sight!
What is more important now is the coming presidential election. I predict (and I put my money where my mouth is" that Clinton will win by a landslide. As in 1932, a change is ordained in 1992 — a change
whose time has come.
Speaking of a change, I'd like to see a change
in the standings of the Phillies and the Orioles.
It's about time they win their division.
Another change I pray for is peace for Israel. With Rabin in charge there is hope — provided the Arab countries allow it.
With Assad, Qaddafi (?) and Hussein in power
peace will tarry.
I'll be off for Israel by the end of August.
There may be an opening in my calendar
for a quick visit to you. I'll phone Alma for a date.
All the best of all to you, Shalom!
Joe
